Itinerary 1

A TASTE OF CORSICA

Ever since France won control of Corsica from Genoa, it has had a complicated relationship with this fiercely independent Mediterranean island, located some 80 miles from its southern shore. Corsica has the power to surprise you. Rocky and mountainous by reputation, it is also gloriously green, with two-thirds of this other 'emerald isle' given to national parks. The Corsican's approach to looking after their island's natural resources ensures a pristine environment for exploring. The landscape's flora, fauna and forests will delight your senses. The snow-capped peaks in Spring will melt your heart. And away from Mother Nature you can actively participate in some serious sunbathing, sightseeing, shopping and serendipity. DAY1: Departure from Porto Cervo. Cruising through the Islands. Dinner and docking in Bonifacio. Time for a magic night stroll in the city narrow streets. DAY2: visit to Lavezzi and Cavallo. Docking and dinner in the charming village of Porto Vecchio. DAY3: Punta Sperone. Feel like playing Golf? There you can. Docking and dinner onboard in Propriano. DAY4: Departure toward Calvi. Stop at one of Nature's masterpiece, La Girolata. Docking in Calvi and dinner at restaurant. DAY5: Visit of Calvi citadel and departure for a swim by the Piana red cliffs. Overnight docking in Ajaccio. DAY6: Exploring Ajaccio. CruiseSouth and Dockage at Cavallo. DAY7: Sea and Fun cruising back to Porto Cervo where your driver is ready to take you to your hotel or airport.

WILD WILD WEST

Off the common paths of the Emerald Coast lies the true soul of Sardinia. In his classic travel book Sea and Sardinia, D.H. Lawrence described it as "lost between Europe and Africa, and belonging to nowhere."

Cruising south along Sardinia's west coast an amazing succession of macchia-cloaked headlands cradled bays of unnatural blue and beaches backed by low dunes and tall umbrella pines are on display. The west coast offers a little bit of everything to cruisers. From small medieval towns to crazy beautiful beaches. An unforgettable week living the sea and exploring the land from the unique point of view of a comfortable cruising boat.

DAY 1: Porto Cervo and the Islands. Nature at its best. Anchorage and dinner onboard under a beautiful starry sky. DAY2: Cruising north to have a look at Corsica and the Islands. Anchorage and dinner in romantic Bonifacio. DAY3: Heading West Sardinia. Anchoring for lunch at Isola Rossa. Overnight at anchor in Stintino DAY4: Asinara National Park and the stunning white sanded stretch of Stintino. Dockage and dinner in the catalan stronghold of Alghero. DAY5: Exploring Alghero and surrounding areas. Anchorage at Asinara. DAY6: Tour of Asinara National Park. Dockage at lovely Santa Teresa di Gallura and dinner at restaurant. DAY7: cruise back to Porto Cervo. Water-sports stop at Porto Liscia. Transfer to hotel or Airport.

SECRET BEAUTY

Only a couple of hours from the glitzy resorts of the Costa Smeralda there's a world apart. The east coast is Sardinia's best kept secret. Where nature and beauty are whispered more than shouted. Where the dramatic coastline lures cruisers to exploration and adventure. Where dolphins and seagulls are your cruising companions. Just lay back and enjoy the lovely coastal resorts and stretches of sands set against mountainous background of grey peaks and overlooking the turquoise waters.

DAY1: Olbia and the Marine Reserve of Tavolara. Anchorage at Cala Brandinchi and dinner in restaurant. DAY2: Wonderful Golfo di Orosei. Anchorage at stunning Cala Luna and dinner onboard. DAY3: Grotte del Bue Marino a sea cave with fantastic underground formations. Overnight stop at Marina di Baunei, dinner at Restaurant in S.M. Navarrese. DAY4: Cruising toward Villasimius. Stop for lunch and then Cagliari for the night. Dinner at restaurant. DAY5: Shopping and wandering around Cagliari, the charming capital of Sardinia. Overnight stay and dinner in Villasimius. DAY6: A close look at the coastline cruising North. Dockage in the romantic village of Porto Ottiolu and dinner at restaurant. DAY7: Sea&Fun on the way back to Olbia. Goodbye to yacht and crew and transfer to Hotel or Airport.
